

Thursday 8th May 2025

- 10am & 11.30am Southwold Arts Centre - showing news reel films from the Imperial War Museum and Anglian Film Archive of VE Day. No booking required.
- 12 noon Visit Southwold Museum between midday and 4pm to view WWII Exhibit.
- 1.50pm Civic Parade from Southwold Town Hall to Gun Hill lead by Piper MacAusland (Flt. Lt. RAF Ret'd).
- 2pm Community service on Gun Hill lead by Rev. Russ Gant.
- 3 - 5pm Music & Memories at the Stella Peskett Millennium Hall. 1940s style event with singing by Rheanne Kelly. Afternoon tea - sandwiches & cakes. Free to all - please call 01502 722576 to book a place.
- 6pm Church Service at St Edmund's Church with recollections of VE Day in Southwold.

Saturday 10th May 2025

9.30am - 12.30pm - 'Southwold in Old Photos' at the Stella Peskett Millenium Hall.

These events are free for all to enjoy. Please come along and celebrate this anniversary. 1940s dress welcomed.

Other Events

7.30pm Thursday 8th May 2025 - Southwold Arts Centre - Open Space Theatres presents 'All My Sons' by Arthur Miller. Tickets to be booked via the website: www.southwoldartscentre.co.uk.

